DeGagne, 2nd vice-president; J. A. Royal, secretary; J. H. Picard, treasurer; trustees, Messrs. Geo. Roy, J. Laurencelle, H. Hetu.

R. SECORD returned on Monday's train from a fur buying trip as far west as Kamloops, and a business trip to Winnipeg. At Kamloops when he was there about April 1st seedling was in progress and snow could only be seen in patches. At Glacier however in the Selkirk the snow was still 10 feet deep. At Winnipeg the season was backward. The Red River was still solid, and the weather was cold.

The death of Sir John Schultz, which occurred at Monterey, California, on Monday last, will be generally regretted in this district where he had expressed his intention of making his home. He had been in very poor health for a number of years, so that his death was not altogether unexpected. He was a very prominent figure in Manitoba politics and about the time of Manitoba entering confederation and held the position of lieutenant-governor of Manitoba from 1888 to 1895. He was spoken of as a possible conservative candidate for Alberta in the coming elections, and would certainly have been the strongest candidate the party could have put forward, at least in the north.

The Columbian Minstrels, of Medicine Hat, played in Robertson hall on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings to good houses. The members of the company are strong in their several lines and are ably assisted by T. H. Dunne, one of the pioneers of Calgary and well known in Edmonton in 1885. They had a brass band and orchestra, both of which rendered very good music. The performances are under the auspices of the C.P. R. management, and are for the benefit of an injured brakeman. A few of the local gauds which they introduced in their Edmonton performances would have been as well left out. They play in South Edmonton to-night, and afterwards in Camrose, Golden and Donald.

CAPT. BELL, of the H. B. Co. steamer Athabasca, arrived on Monday's train to take command of his steamer for the season.

RABBIT HILL public school district has been empowered to borrow $350 for the purchase of a school site and building and furnishing a school house.

RODINA STANDARD: "The question raised by our Saltoun correspondent, why the government should select the district which the Bell farm has infested with noxious weeds as the place to buy seed grain for distribution, is a queer question in order."

Tux Dock lake correspondent of the Prince Albert Times says that Hilary Mitchell, M. L. A. will not allow his name to go before a conservative convention as a candidate for Saskatchewan. The correspondent says Capt. Craig is the conservative standard bearer.

BERTYDAL public school district No. 409, has been proclaimed, comprising: Sections 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34 and 35 in Township 33 Range 2, and Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 14, 15, 16, 17 and 18 in Township 33 Range 2, all west of the fifth meridian. The first trustees are George Murray, W. H. Greenwood, D. G. Whitelock.

SMITH'S GROVE public school district No. 408 has been proclaimed, comprising Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23 and 24 in Township 33 Range 2, and Sections 1, 2, 11, 12, 13, 14, 23, 24, 25 and 26 in Township 33 Range 23, all west of the fourth meridian. The first trustees are Erik Dufva, A. E. Lindblom, and Jonas Kallman.

H. H. Phinney, post office inspector, left for Winnipeg on Tuesday's train to take inspection of the post offices of the district. On Monday afternoon he secured the conviction and fine before T. W. Chalmers, of a local merchant, for an infraction of the postal regulations by enclosing a letter in a post parcel. As it is not generally known that this is a punishable offence, it would be well for all parties interested to make a note of the fact.

REV. G. W. DEAN gave an interesting series of line light views in the Masonic hall on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings. The weather was stormy on Tuesday evening and the attendance consequently small. On Wednesday evening the seating capacity of the hall was fully occupied. The views included scenes in the Banff and Yellowknife parks, the Yosemite valley and the World's fair, and were well displayed and pleasingly explained. A disarrangement of the apparatus on Wednesday evening brought the entertainment to a close before all the views had been displayed.

WAPISKA LAKES.

John McLeod arrived on Tuesday from the Church of England mission at Wapiska lakes about one hundred miles north of Athabasca Landing. He started from Wapiska on April 7th, and came by dog train to the Landing. The winter was severe and the snow is about two and a half feet deep. The Church of England mission in charge of Rev. C. Weaver is having the buildings considerably improved. A school, having an attendance of 8 or 10 children, is kept by Mr. Weaver. The H. B. Co. have a small trading post at the lake, an outpost from Athabasca Landing, kept by Sam Houle. Colin Johnson, trader of the Landing, also has a trading post in charge of his brother, Sam Johnson. There are about 200 people in the settlement. The country is chiefly forest, but they grow a few potatoes and have horses and cattle. The Indian or half breed who was killed as a White at Trout lake, in February last, lived at Wapiska and was well known to Mr. McLeod. His Indian name was Na-pa-nio. He was a fairly intelligent man, about 35 years of age, and lived in a house like a halfbreed, and provided well for his wife and children. About the end of January he started, apparently in good health, with his wife and children on a visit to his father, who lived at Trout lake about eighty miles from Wapiska. His wife reports that on the second night out he acted strangely, saying that some strange animals were about to attack him. During the remainder of the trip he acted strangely at intervals, and at such times his wife for her own safety induced him to sleep. They reached his father's place at Trout lake safely, and was there for twenty days, his fits of insanity becoming more frequent and violent. His body is said to have swelled considerably and his lips were very much puffed out. His wife on her return to Wapiska said that he did not become dangerous, but other persons said that he was violent and dangerous at intervals. In his lucid moments he told his friends that he did not intend to hurt any one, but that if they considered him dangerous they had better kill him. On the day of his death he was tied hands and feet, face down, in one of the houses. His wife did not know that he was to be killed and went to a neighbors house with her baby. After a while suspecting something, she returned to the house where her husband was. The door was attempted to be shut against her, but she placed her foot between the door and the jam and held the door open so that she heard the blow of an axe and saw blood on the floor. She was shocked away and the door shut. Four men were in the house at the time with her husband. The men are reported to have said that they tied him before he entered one of his frantic fits for their own protection, not with the intention of killing him, although the possibility had been seriously discussed. But at this time during his frenzy he had nearly broken loose and they feared he would get loose altogether and kill some of them. They struck him four blows with an axe, about the head. The reason that an axe was used was that there is a belief amongst the Indians that a bullet will not pierce a white or man-eater. The body was burned and large trees felled over the grave to prevent the possibility of a re-appearance of the man, the people of the settlement were terror stricken, believing that he might reappear and destroy them. His murder is justified on the ground that unless he was killed he would have killed others, and that it is the custom of the country.

THE South Edmonton council Royal Templars of Temperance propose holding a tea and concert in Parrish's Hall Tuesday 21st inst. Tables will be set and tea served from 7 to 8 p.m. South Edmonton brass band in attendance. Admission 25 cents.

J. L. SECORD arrived on Monday from Grand Rapids on the Athabasca river with a pack of fur, a part of his winter's hunt. He came up the Athabasca to the mouth of Lac la Biche river, then went to Lac la Biche settlement, came out again and came to the Landing by the river, and from the Landing in by team. He brought with him four good silver fox skins and a cross fox besides other fur. All the hunters in the neighborhood of Grand Rapids are doing well. A number of boats are now being built at the Landing for the spring trade down the Athabasca.

ED. WILLIAMS arrived from the Landing on Tuesday, accompanied by J. L. Secord. The Landing is quite a busy place at the present time. Colin Johnson is building five flat boats for R. Secord to go to Chipewyan, J. Fraser is building one York boat, G. Gullion is building three York boats for the H. B. Co., P. Luted is building a flat boat for himself, W. Clark is building a flat boat for himself, and a Hudson's Bay man from the north named Foursie is building a boat for the H. B. Co. Snow had gone for a distance of fifteen miles on this side of the Landing, before the recent storm, but the river was still solid. Two children belonging to a family which came from the north last season have died of diphtheria or some similar disease and another member of the family is very ill. A large amount of cordwood has been cut for the use of W. A. Fraser's oil boring party during the coming summer and a house has been built near the well. A blue ribbon society has been formed at the Landing, having eighteen members. Rev. Mr. Robinson took a horse and flat sleigh loaded with 700 pounds of seed grain from the Landing to Slave lake in five days. The resident population around the Landing now amounts to about fifty and they propose petitioning for a mail service. The missionaries and traders of Lesser Slave lake would be considerably assisted by having a post office at the Landing.

GENERAL NEWS.

The best grades of flour are down to $1.75 at Prince Albert.

Reported that Major Stewart Mulvey is being asked to oppose Hon. T. M. Daly, in Brandon for the Commons.

The Free Press publishes a report that Premier Greenway, of Manitoba, is likely to contest a Manitoba constituency for the Dominion house. Mr. Greenway himself denied the report to a St. Paul reporter.

The Free Press is authority for the statement that Sir Charles Tupper will be offered the conservative nomination for Winnipeg and suggests that Mr. Laurier be offered the liberal nomination. Joe Martin is just the man for Tupper.

The Lethbridge News believes that the proposed new electoral district of Southern Alberta should include the Cypress Hills ranching country as far east as Swift Current. It does not expect that the measure will be passed this session.

Mr. Laurier has the reputation of being the most polished and gentlemanly speaker in the House of Commons. But on April 8th, he replied to charges of obstruction and threats made by Sir Charles Tupper in a style to be remembered by that gentleman.

Prince Albert Times: Several carloads of seed grain arrived on Saturday's train to supply the farmers of this district, who are now busy hauling it out. The grain is a fine sample, and several farmers are taking the opportunity of getting a change of seed.

Masson, M. P., for North Grey, has already been appointed to an Ontario judgeship as the price of his vote on the remedial bill and Moncrieff, M. P., the P. P. remedialist for Lampton is also about to be appointed. McKay, of Hamilton, also has an appointment in his pocket.

Seven thousand acres of Manitoba land were purchased in Toronto on April 11th, by Henry Barber at auction at 151 cents per acre. The lands belonged to the insolvent estate of Samson Kennedy & Co., and a portion of them have been carried for thirteen years. One block of 1,200 acres on the G. N. W. Central through which Oak River runs was included in the purchase. There were only two bidders for the property.

Lethbridge News: "If Mr. Cochrane has any influence with the Herald, the sooner he persuades it to let the former abortive attempt at a convention rest in oblivion, the better it will be for his chances in any convention that may now be held. Mr. Cochrane and the Herald may also assure themselves that Mr. Cochrane will never be supported by the conservatives of the Lethbridge and Macleod district until he comes before them as the nominee of a convention of all the districts of Alberta, or its Southern riding, as the case may be, which has been assembled and conducted on a fair and equitable basis."

The Macleod Gazette, conservative, in dealing with the question of Cochrane, Stone as the conservative candidate says of Mr. Cochrane: "He received the nomination of that convention, and he intends to hold on to it. But he and any officials of the convention who adopt this position are ill-advised, for they will have to bear the responsibility for disruption of the party, and will defeat their own ends by alienating the sympathies of large numbers of conservatives who would vote for Mr. Cochrane as the nominee of a new convention, but would swerve their votes or give them to a liberal rather than give them to him in his present position."

The Toronto World of April 11th, says editorially: "The remedial bill, it is now admitted by leading conservative papers, cannot be passed. The Montreal Gazette says: 'Obstructionists have triumphed.' By obstructionists the Gazette divides means a liberal opposition, but this is not exact. What killed the bill: what has strangled it in the house is the public opinion of Ontario, acting through a majority of the liberal members from this province, and some fourteen conservatives from Ontario, who voted against the measure. Three men, or a portion of them, taking advantage of the fact that less than three weeks must pass before the expiration of parliament, were enabled to block the passage of the bill notwithstanding the determination of the government to keep the house in continuous session."

Battleford Herald: "Our contemporary in Prince Albert waxes indignant in its last issue over the arrest of five constables for not attending the Sunday service of the church of England, they being Methodists. What would the same paper say of its case of Sergt. Jones, of Battleford, who has been dismissed on the ground of his being married? This non-commissioned officer has given eleven years' service to the police, and about two years ago had the misfortune to lose one of his fingers in the performance of his duty. No compensation was given him for this misfortune, but on the contrary the authorities refused to re-engage him except for one year as a constable. The only reason for this is that he is married, although this awful offence was committed with the full knowledge of the commissioner."

Speaking to a Montreal Witness reporter on the subject of his recent mission to Winnipeg Sir Donald Smith said: "The bill itself provides for the machinery by which it is to be operated, at the same time it may be acknowledged that a double system of school government in a province would be a very unsatisfactory state of things. It was to prevent such a situation that I undertook to go to Winnipeg. Not in a party sense at all you understand, for I regard the question in quite another light. I regarded it from the point of view of the prosperity of the country as a whole, without regard to its effect upon political parties. Dual machinery and dual government would be a great distress. That is felt generally. The government of Manitoba is composed of shrewd, able men, who thoroughly understand the situation in all its bearings. They have given it the most thorough study. They are desirous of a settlement, and they will, I believe, yet bring it about of themselves. It may take some time. The agitation is being allayed in Winnipeg, and all parties are eager for a friendly settlement which will give satisfaction to all parties. This can yet be brought about in spite of the apparent failure of the present conference."

Reported that Oimet is about to retire from politics in disgust. The disgust is mutual.

THE ELECTIONS.

Parliament will prorogue not later than Saturday of next week and possibly a week from to-day. The elections will certainly be brought on forthwith, as it will be necessary that a new parliament should meet before July 1st to pass the estimates for the year ending June 30th, 1897. The estimates now being discussed are in all probability only the supplementaries for the current year, that is to complete services already under way. The issues in the coming elections are defined and the dates practically fixed. It now remains for those who feel an interest in the good government of their country to give effect to their views by exerting themselves to elect the men whom they can depend upon to represent those views. Every elector has a duty to perform and a responsibility to maintain in this regard. Not to vote is not to shirk responsibility but to assume it for those who do vote. The clearest and best way is for every man to vote as he thinks. In this way he discharges his duty to himself and his country, and in this way and in this way only is good government secured. You have no right to complain of bad government if you do not take proper action at the proper time to secure good government.

THE RAILWAY.

The fact that the C. P. R. has leased the C. & E. railway for another term of five years clears up, for that term at least, the difficulty about getting the C. P. R. to operate the proposed lines of the Edmonton district railway company. When the question was brought up last spring Van Horne promised to operate a branch to the mill flat opposite town free of charge, but would only bind himself until the end of the then current lease. Now that the lease has been renewed on the same conditions as before there is no doubt that his offer will be as good for the new lease as for the old one. This being the case, whether the bridge goes on or not this summer, it will be good policy to build the railroad to the bridge site at once; and when the railroad is completed to the river bank the best possible argument in favor of a railway bridge will have been made. And it does appear as though our present position regarding the railway bridge would be none the worse of a little strengthening.

DEBATE.

In reply to Sir Charles Tupper Mr. Laurier said he had never before seen such a sorry and sad exhibition of unbridled rage in the commons. He was indebted to Sir Charles for his vituperation, preferred it to his encomiums, because it would justify him (Laurier) in the eyes of the people. He denied there had been any obstruction until his reasonable offer, which would have ensured progress, had been refused. Only yesterday he had been absolved by Sir Charles from the charge of obstruction, but the latter had discovered that that was a bad statement to be laid before the electors in Quebec, and he to-day hastened to give the lie to his truthful words of yesterday. Mr. Laurier said Sir Charles Tupper's torrents of abuse reminded him of an extinct volcano vomiting forth mud and water; and then proceeded to subject the venerable baronet to one of those oratorical inquiries of which he is so capable, and concluded by saying that he had never suffered the humiliation of being denounced by his followers, and had never been charged with treachery. If it had been he would soon have delivered his party of his presence. He would not be bullied, and only felt amused contempt for the tactics of the government leader. He was ready to go to the country and have the people pronounce on their respective characters. Mr. Laurier said he pitied his co-religionists in Manitoba if they were to get no more than they could get by the remedial bill, which was unworkable. He reminded Sir Charles that Sir John Thompson had once accused the conservatives for the disabilities under which Nova Scotia Catholics labored, and also that Sir Charles himself once expressed his opinion of Catholics by saying that he had no confidence in the "breed" Mr. Laurier was frequently cheered while he was speaking.

POPULAR LAKE.

A meeting of the electors in this district was held in the old school house on Wednesday evening, the 8th inst, to discuss and hear addresses on provincial autonomy. Although the evening was rather rough and cold, the interest felt in this matter nearly brought the whole settlement together. Mr. John Kennedy was called upon to preside, and introduced C. M. Woodworth to the meeting who was the only one of the Edmonton bright-lights had enough courage to face the boisterous evening. Mr. Woodworth gave a lengthy and lucid description of the work and benefits accruing from provincial government, and at the close of the meeting was awarded a hearty vote of thanks for his address. Several local luminaries addressed the meeting upon the same subject. Everyone present signed the petitions to be presented to the Dominion government asking for this privilege.

April 13th, 1896.

LACOMBE LINKS.

Mr. Ching, M.J. McLeod's new clerk, arrived from Prince Edward Island a week ago and settled down to work at once. Mr. Ching, though only nineteen years of age, measures six feet six inches and weighs 210 lbs. If we call him one of the boys, where will we find our men?

There was a fall of several inches of snow on Tuesday last, which stopped several of the farmers from carrying out their intentions of starting seeding on the next day, and with the changeable weather since the land is not in a condition for seeding yet.

J. M. Mair is putting up a storehouse at the back of his shop, with the intention, it is rumored, of putting in a stock of flour.

The police have been busy for some days dealing out government seed grain and will be at it for some days to come.

G. A. Reid, our energetic hardware merchant, is having an implement shed erected at the rear of his store.

Mr. Metcalf, of Pleasant Valley a few miles southeast of town, met with a painful accident one day last week, having had the point of his elbow cut off while he and his cousin, Mr. Owen, were scoring on the same log, his arm having come in contact with Mr. Owen's axe. It is feared it will cause a stiff joint. He is under charge of a physician.

Mr. Simpson who took up a homestead a year or so ago some twelve miles southeast of here, is lying at the hotel sick. Early in the year Mrs. Simpson and their two boys went to Sudbury expecting Mr. Simpson to follow, but by the time he had disposed of his stock and household goods, he did not feel able to go alone, so Mrs. Simpson was sent for, who arrived last Monday, finding him unable to undertake the trip at present. He is now under the charge of Dr. Richardson, which together with the good nursing he will get, it is hoped will soon enable him to stand the journey.

The trails in the valley are in a very bad condition, but a few days of fine weather would dispose of the snow, which is almost entirely gone on the higher land now.

There will be eight or ten carloads of cattle go out by to-morrow's train. April 13, '96.

PROVINCIAL AUTONOMY.

INNISFAIR, April 11th, '96.

Provincial autonomy has been the most prominent matter of consideration by the people of this district for the past few weeks. Meetings here have been addressed by Dr. Brett, of Banff, and Mr. James Reilly, of Calgary, who are among the champions of the movement to obtain for Alberta a full provincial status. On the 5th inst. at a numerous and representative meeting the following resolution was passed almost unanimously:

Resolved 1. That in the opinion of this meeting the obtaining of provincial autonomy for Alberta would be, as circumstances now are, against the best interests of Alberta and

2. That this meeting is strongly opposed to the present movement for the obtaining of provincial autonomy for Alberta.

As fully ninety per cent. of the elector residents in Innisfair and the surrounding country are in full sympathy with the above resolution an association has been organized in opposition to the present movement for obtaining provincial institutions for Alberta. The following officers have been elected: President, J. A. Wilson; vice president, P. W. Asher; secretary, E. A. Chappell; treasurer H. M. Douglas.

As the reports of the press in some parts of Alberta would tend to lead outsiders to suppose that the country is practically unanimously in favor of provincial autonomy, and as it is of

A SUGGESTION.

The following suggestion has been received by Rev. Father Lacombe from a friend of Pincher Creek, respecting the government of the half breed reserve at Egg lake. The writer has recently returned from a visit to Honolulu:

Reverend Sir: I lent Mr. Pearce, superintendent of mines, a copy of the land act at the Hawaiian Republic, as the laws under which the native Hawaiians are granted land will, I think, be exactly suitable for your half breed colony. Mr. Pearce wished to make a copy of it, and you would do well to see it before framing any laws. Wishing you God speed in your efforts for the half breeds.

I remain

Yours faithfully,
F. W. GODSAL.

The Dauphin, Man., railway will start from Gladstone, Man., and will be built by W. McKenzie and D. D. Mann. Between 150 and 175 miles will be built this summer.

Rev. John McDougall has a letter in the Calgary Herald opposing the half breed reserve scheme of Rev. Father Lacombe. He suggests that half breeds who are destitute and unable to provide for themselves be allowed to join the Indians on the reserves. As for the others he says: "Let the mass of the half-breed people mix up in settlement and industry with the incoming population, let their children attend the same schools, let the elders take a fair part in the competition of life and it will be with them as with others of their fellow citizens. Then for the abject poor and helpless do as I have indicated and this question will be settled in harmony with fair play and constitutional government."

INSURANCE.

The board of trade held a special meeting on Monday afternoon to hear R. T. Riley, of the Canadian Fire Insurance Co., of Winnipeg, explain the claims which his company (of Winnipeg) had on Northwest business. Mr. McDougall, vice-president, was in the chair, in the absence of Mr. Kirkpatrick. Mr. Riley gave a large amount of interesting and valuable information regarding fire insurance and insurance companies. He showed that all companies practically did business on a mutual basis, for if the premiums received did not equal the losses paid they would soon cease to do business. The company he represented had been organized by leading business men, whose subscriptions of stock were a sufficient guarantee that any losses met with by the company would be paid. It had been organized by the merchants to protect themselves against the high handed action of the insurance combine known as the Winnipeg board of underwriters, which had increased their rates five cents per $100 to meet the cost of the provincial government. The organization of their company caused this extra five cents to be taken off. The cost of adjustment of claims for losses, which formerly had been paid by the insurer, was now assumed by the company. He explained the hardships of the co-insurance clauses, in fire policies. He asked support from the business public of Edmonton to assist his company in their effort to secure fairer dealing and lower rates. As yet his company had not lowered rates but he believed a 25 per cent. reduction all around would be right and practicable. Mr. Cowie pointed out that the board of underwriters had recently reduced rates in Edmonton and had relieved the loss of the cost of adjustment without pressure from Mr. Riley's company. J. H. Picard said that the recent alterations had increased his rates. S. S. Taylor said that his rates had also been increased. He spoke strongly in favor of Mr. Riley's company as a check on the board of underwriters. After some further discussion the meeting closed.

They include $12,000 on account of the Northwest exhibition and $25,000 for taking a census in Manitoba. There is also $90,000 for mail service between St. John, N. B., and Vancouver. There is also a sum of $15,000 for the Northwest government. There is nothing for new public works in Manitoba."

The following sample of dirty partisanship worthy of the Mail Empire is from the Free Press of April 11th, and is a sufficient indication of how the C. P. R. influence is going in the coming elections: "One thing has been made quite evident, and that is that the men in parliament who have been opposing the remedial bill out of pretended regard for the province do not care a button for the educational interests of Manitoba. It will be well to get a good grasp of that fact and bear it in mind. They have opposed the bill, not as a protection to the majority, not out of anxious concern for our school system, not in defence of our provincial autonomy, but because they hoped by keeping the question alive they could get votes enough in the country to give them a majority in the next elections."
